The conditions of award of the K. Srinivasa Iyengar Scholarships (pages 388-89 of the Calendar for 1934-35, Vol. I.) are revised as under:—

Founder.—Mr. K. Srinivasa Iyengar, Engineer-in-Chief, Mysore Railways.
Object.—For the encouragement of professional studies like Medicine, Engineering, Law, Agriculture, etc.
Date.—1925.
Original Amount.—Rs. 5,000.
Subsequent additions to corpus.—Rs. 150.
Rate of interest on investment.— 4 per cent on Rs. 5,000. 5 per cent on Rs. 150.

Conditions of Grant.

1. The interest on the endowment shall be utilised for the award of two scholarships of equal value for the L.M.P. course according to the following conditions:—

2. Only Brahmana students who are Mysoreans shall be eligible for the scholarships; provided that one of the scholarships shall always be held by a Srivaishnava Brahmana and the other by a non-Srivaishnava Brahmana.

3. Each scholarship shall be awarded in the first year of the course and be tenable for the whole length of the course subject to the usual conditions of satisfactory progress, conduct and attendance, provided that both the scholarships shall not be held in the same class of the course.

A scholarship may be discontinued in the middle of the course if it is found that the general circumstances of the holder have improved subsequently so that he can continue his studies without the help of this scholarship.

4. The scholarship shall be awarded mainly on consideration of poverty.

When there are two or more poor students eligible for a scholarship when it is first awarded in the first year class, it shall be awarded to the one who shall have obtained the highest percentage of total marks in the highest examination passed by the applicants.

In the event of there being more than one applicant obtaining equal marks, the University shall have the discretionary power to award the scholarship to the most deserving among them.

5. Poor students who are in receipt of no other aid and who would otherwise find it difficult to prosecute their studies will have preferential treatment over others having other aids.

6. During the life-time of the donor any recommendation made by him regarding any poor student for a scholarship may be considered by the Medical School Council in awarding the scholarship.

7. When a vacancy occurs in any class, the scholarship may be awarded according to the foregoing conditions to a deserving poor student in the same class; failing which it may be awarded to a new student entering the course, provided that there is no student in the first year class already holding the scholarship.

8. If, in any year, there is no student eligible for any of the scholarships, the interest shall be added to the corpus.

9. If, at any future time, the Medical School should be abolished, the interest on the endowment may be utilised for the award of a single scholarship in the Medical College to a deserving Srivaishnava Brahmin student, the other conditions of award being as above mutatis mutandis.

10. The scholarship shall be awarded, for the present, for medical education. In course of time, if this branch of profession should be sufficiently encouraged otherwise, then the scholarship may be diverted to other professional studies which require help. Such diversion and change in the value of the scholarships and the manner of payment may be made by the University Council with the consent in writing of the donor during his life-time.

The Viva Voce examination may be continued, if necessary, on Sunday, the 31st July 1938.

Applications for the examinations should be sent through the Principals of the Colleges concerned. Forms of application can be had from the Principal. They will not be supplied to candidates by the University Office.

The last date for the receipt of applications will be fixed and notified by the Principal of the College concerned.

Candidates who have offered a thesis should submit the thesis to the Principal of the College concerned on a date to be specified such that all the theses may be sent so as to reach the University Office on or before the 20th June 1938. Attention is invited to the following instructions regarding the submission of the thesis and its publication.

A. Submission of thesis.

1. The thesis shall be sent in a sealed cover on or before the prescribed date and shall be submitted in duplicate written in hand, in ink, typed or printed. Notes, drawings, maps and other appendices referred to in the thesis shall also be submitted in duplicate.

2. The thesis shall embody the results of research or investigation carried out by the candidate.

3. It shall be accompanied by a statement indicating the sources from which the candidate has derived information or guidance for the work and extent to which he has availed himself of the work of others and the portions of the thesis which he claims as original.

4. It shall be accompanied by a declaration to the effect that the thesis is not substantially the same as any that has already been published or submitted for a degree in this or any other University.

5. It shall be accompanied by a report from the Professor of the University under whom the work of the candidate was conducted.

Note.—A candidate unsuccessful at a previous examination for the Master's Degree, offering an amended or amplified thesis at a second or subsequent appearance should furnish with the thesis a note indicating the amendments or the extent of the amplification or both; and in addition a certificate to the effect that the thesis has not been published or submitted for a degree in any other University, either in its original or in its amended or amplified form.

B. Publication.

1. The thesis shall be considered the property of the University.

2. The University shall have the right to publish any thesis in such manner as it deems fit.

3. The permission of the University Council shall be obtained in each case for publishing it.

4. The University may suggest any modification in regard to the thesis which should be effected before permission is granted for publishing it.

5. In publishing a thesis, it shall be mentioned that the thesis was offered for the Master's Degree of this University.

By Order,
V. GOPALASWAMI AIENGAR,
Registrar.
